BRIEF HISTORY OF ACTIVITY :

Women's Day Celebration Report

On the occasion of International Women's Day, our college organized a meaningful and awareness-oriented program to empower and educate students.

As a part of this celebration, we were honored to invite Dr. Sudhasadaha Madam from the Government Hospital, who addressed the students with great enthusiasm and care. She delivered an insightful session focusing on women's health, hygiene, and preventive care.

Madam explained the importance of maintaining personal hygiene, especially among young girls, and how it plays a vital role in overall well-being. She also created awareness about the HPV (Human Papillomavirus) vaccine, highlighting its significance in preventing cervical cancer. Students gained valuable knowledge about the right age, benefits, and necessity of taking the vaccine.

The session was highly interactive, and students actively participated by asking questions and clarifying their doubts. Madam's guidance helped students understand the importance of taking responsibility for their health and making informed decisions.

The program was very informative and impactful, leaving a positive impression on all the attendees. It truly reflected the spirit of Women's Day by promoting awareness, health, and empowerment among students.

Savitri Bai Phule Jayanti Celebration Report

Our college celebrated the birth anniversary of Savitribai Phule with great respect and enthusiasm, remembering her remarkable contributions to women's education and social reform.

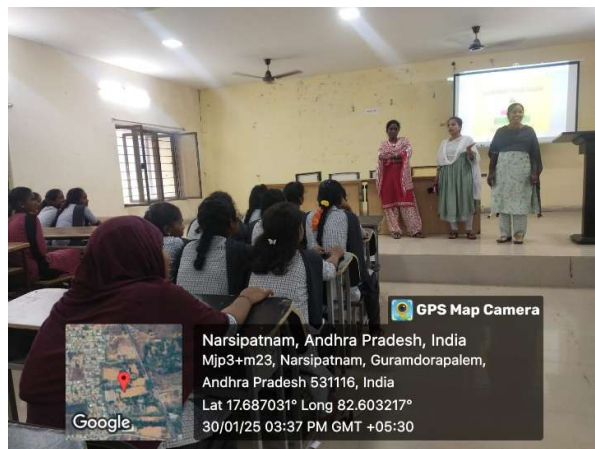

The program was organized in a grand and meaningful manner under the guidance of our respected Principal and Vice Principal. All the faculty members and staff actively participated in the celebration, making it a memorable occasion.

The event began with floral tributes to Savitribai Phule, followed by speeches highlighting her role as the first female teacher of India and her dedication towards empowering women through education. Her life and struggles inspired everyone present to value education and work towards equality in society.

Our Principal addressed the gathering and emphasized the importance of following the ideals of Savitribai Phule in today's world. The Vice Principal and staff members also shared their thoughts, motivating students to pursue education with determination and confidence.

The celebration was conducted successfully with great coordination and active participation from everyone. It created awareness among students about the importance of education, equality, and women empowerment.

The program was truly inspiring and left a lasting impression on all participants.

Thank you
